NO. 13 EAST SECOND STREET.

SIR HENRY MORGAN, BUCCANEER

By CYRUS TOWNSEND BRADY,
Author of "The Southerners," "For Love of Country," "The Grip of Honor," Etc.

COPYRIGHT, 1905, BY G. W. DILLINGHAM COMPANY

Morgan and Alvarado, on the other hand, were more equally matched. Neither had gained an advantage, although both fought with energy and fury. Alvarado was silent, but Morgan made the air ring with shouts and cries for his men. As the swords clashed Carib raised his hand to fling his knife at Alvarado, but just as the weapon left his fingers Mercedes threw herself upon him. The whizzing blade went wild. With a savage oath he seized a pistol and ran toward the Spaniard, who was at last getting the better of the captain. A cry from Mercedes warned Alvarado of this new danger. Disengaging suddenly, he found himself at sword's point with De Lussan, who had withdrawn his broken weapon from De Tobar's body and was menacing him with it. With three opponents before him he backed up against the wall and at last gave tongue.

"To me!" he cried loudly, hoping some of his men were within call. "Alvarado!"

As he spoke Morgan closed with him once more, shouting:

"On him, De Lussan! Let him have it, Black Dog! We've disposed of one!"

As the blades crossed again the desperate Spaniard, who was a swordsman of swordsmen, put forth all his power. There was a quick interchange of thrust and parry, and the weapon went whirling from the hand of the chief buccaneer. Quick as thought Alvarado shortened his arm and drove home the stroke. Morgan's life trembled in the balance. The maroon, however, who had been seeking a chance to fire, threw himself between the two men and received the force of the thrust full in the heart. His pistol was discharged harmlessly. He fell dead at his master's feet without even a groan. No more would Black Dog watch behind the old man's chair. He had been faithful to his hideous leader and his hideous creed. Before Alvarado could recover his guard De Lussan struck him with his broken sword. The blow was parried by arm and dagger, but the force of it sent the Spaniard reeling against the wall. At the same instant Morgan seized a pistol and snapped it full in his face. The weapon missed fire, but the buccaneer, clutching the barrel, beat him down with a fierce blow.

"So much for these two!" he roared. "Let's to the street!"

De Lussan seized Alvarado's sword, throwing away his own. Morgan picked up his own blade again, and the two ran from the room.

A stern fight was being waged in the square, whither all the combatants had congregated, the buccaneers driven there, the Spaniards following. The disciplined valor and determination of the Spanish, however, were slowly causing the buccaneers to give ground. No Spanish soldiers that ever lived could have defeated the old time buccaneers, but these were different, and their best men had been killed with Teach and L'Ollonois. The opportune roy in the lead, poured into the guard-room. There, on his back, was stretched the hideous body of the half breed where he had fallen. There, farther away, the unfortunate De Tobar lay, gasping for breath, yet making no outcry. He was leaning on his arm and staring across the room, with anguish in his face not due to the wound he had received, but a sight which broke his heart.

"Alas, De Tobar!" cried the vicero-

roy. "Where is Mercedes?"

He followed the glance of the dying man. There at the other side of the room lay a prostrate body, and over it came a moaning, sobbing figure. It was Mercedes.

"Senorita," cried one of the officers, "Don Felipe here is dying! He would speak with you."

Mercedes suffered herself to be led to where De Tobar lay upon the floor. One of his comrades had taken his head on his knee. The very seconds of his life were numbered. Lovely in her grief, Mercedes knelt at his side, a great pity in her heart. The vicero-roy stepped close to him.

"I thank you, too," she said. "Poor Don Felipe! He and you saved me, but at the expense of your lives. Would God you could have been spared!"

"Nay," gasped the dying man. "Thou lovest him. I watched thee. I heard thee call upon his name. Thou wert not for me, and so I die willingly. He is a noble gentleman. Would he might have won thee!"

The man trembled with the violent effort it cost him to speak. He gasped faintly and strove to smile. By an impulse for which she was ever after grateful she bent her head, slipped her arm around his neck, lifted him up and kissed him. In spite of his death agony at that caress he smiled up at her.

"Now," he murmured, "I die happy—content. You kissed me—Mercedes!"

"He is dead," said the officer.

"God rest his soul, a gallant gentleman," said the vicero-roy, and his example was followed by every one in the room.

"And Captain Alvarado?" said Mercedes, rising to her feet and turning to the other figure.

"Senorita," answered another of the officers, "he lives. See—he moves!"

A little shudder crept through the figure of the prostrate captain, who had only been knocked senseless by the fierce blow and was otherwise unharmed.

"His eyes are open! Water, quick!"

With skilled fingers begot by long practice the cavalier cut the lacings of Alvarado's doublet and gave him water, then a little wine. As the young captain returned to consciousness once more the officers crowded around him, the vicero-roy in the center, Mercedes on her knees again.

"Mercedes," whispered the young captain—"alive, unharmed?"

"Yes," answered Mercedes brokenly, "thanks to God and thee."

"And De Tobar," generously asserted Alvarado, "Where is he?"

"Dead."

"Oh, brave De Tobar! And the city?"

"Is ours."

"And Morgan?"

"Here in my hands," said the vicero-roy sternly.

"Thank God, thank God! And now, your excellency, my promise. I thought as I was stricken down there would be no need for you to—"

"Thou hast earned life, Alvarado, not death, and thou shalt have it."

"Senors," said Alvarado, whose faintness was passing from him, "I broke my pledged word to the vicero-roy and Don Felipe de Tobar. I love this lady and was false to my charge. Don Alvarado promised me death for punishment, and I crave it. I care not for life without—"

"And did he tell thee why he broke his word?" asked Mercedes, taking his hands in her own and looking up at her father. "It was my fault. I made him. In despair I strove to throw myself over the cliff on yonder mountain, and he caught me in his arms. With me in his arms, which of you, my lords," she said, throwing back her head with superb pride, "would not have done the same? Don Felipe de Tobar is dead. He was a gallant gentleman, but I loved him not. My father, you will not part us now?"

"No," said the old man, "I will not try. I care not now what his birth or lineage, he hath shown himself a man of noblest soul. You heard the wish of De Tobar. It shall be so. This is the betrothal of my daughter, gentlemen. Art satisfied, captain? She is noble enough, she hath lineage and race enough, for both of you. My interest with our royal master will secure you that patent of nobility you will adorn, for bravely have you won it."

An estimate made as the interior department shows that so far as is now known, about $60,000 of the Chickasaw nation school warrants have been fraudulently released.

ARMISTICE LAGS

Important Phase of Peace Negotiations Appears Hopeless.

A STUMBLING BLOCK

Thus Far the President Has Been Unable to Make Any Progress in This Direction.

Will Probably Be Deferred Until Convening of the Washington Conference.

Washington, June 24.—Mr. Takahira, the Japanese minister, called at the White House last night, where he was received by the president and remained for three-quarters of an hour. The minister would have nothing to say about his conference or the situation at this time, beyond remarking that "some matters must be settled first." When asked about an armistice the fact that the minister could give no assurances regarding an armistice prior to the convening of the Washington conference tends to confirm the belief in official circles here that little headway has yet been made by the president in this direction. The Russian reply to the president's suggestion regarding an armistice has not been received, and until the reply is received the result of this phase of the negotiations cannot be known.

SERIOUS SITUATION

Poland Is Developing a Fierce Revolutionary Spirit.

St. Petersburg, June 24.—According to advices received here the situation in Poland is again exceedingly serious. Censored dispatches from Lodz, though giving few details, indicate that fierce street fighting was in progress yesterday between the military and the striking workmen, who barricaded the thoroughfares in various quarters of the city and offered resistance which the troops met with volleys. The list of dead and wounded presumably is heavy, but not even an estimate has been received here. Russian correspondents telegraph that the streets are entirely in the hands of the military and the mob and that it is unsafe to venture out to obtain details.

It is not known whether the fighting was continued today, but it is feared that order can be restored only at heavy sacrifice. Lodz has been in a turmoil for the past three days. The strike, which embraces 60,000 workers, appears to have entirely lost its economic nature and is now a vast political manifestation. All forms of public business activity have been suspended, the peaceful inhabitants remaining indoors in fear of their lives. The political zeal of the manifestants has become inflamed by intoxicants from the vodka shops which were broken into and pillaged yesterday. At Warsaw a strike has commenced and disorders are looked for, and the trial of Okryev, who threw a bomb at a police station March 26, will probably result in other bomb outrages. A man was arrested yesterday armed with a bomb which was evidently intended to be used in court during the trial yesterday.

In the meanwhile the government has publicly disclaimed all designs as to the Russification of Poland, the committee of ministers in its deliberations on the school question, which were published yesterday, saying: "The committee considers it absolutely necessary to establish the fact that the Russification and denationalism of the Poles cannot possibly lie within the intent of the Russian government. The aim must rather be the amalgamation of the Polish government with the Russian administration and the welding of the Polish people with the general body of Russia by peaceful ties which will preserve Polish individuality, culture and language."

Panic at Lodz.

Lodz, Russian Poland, June 24.—This city has been in a state of panic. The strike is general and all the factories and shops are closed. Barricades have been erected at many points. Rifle volleys and revolver shots are heard continually. Many persons have been killed or wounded but it is impossible at present to ascertain the number with any exactitude, owing to the general character of the disturbances.

Cruisers Must Be Good.

St. Petersburg, June 24.—In consequence of British representations British warships will be dispatched to convey orders to the Russian auxiliary cruisers Dnelper and Rion to cease interference with shipping and to return immediately.

Arrested the Second Time.

Philadelphia, June 24.—Ex-Chief John F. Hill of the filtration bureau of the department of public works, was rearrested and will be given a hearing before Magistrate Eisenbrown on a warrant sworn out by James I. Donaghy, chief of Detectives, charging that Hill, while an employee of the city, committed the offense of forgery by making false estimates and falsifying the books and papers of the bureau in the interest of Daniel J. McNichol, city contractor.

PASSING OF THE HORSE

Has the Automobile Sounded the Equine Death Knell?

Indianapolis, June 24.—A report compiled by Joseph Stubbs, state statistician, raises the interesting question of whether or not the faithful horse is to be relegated for the auto and the mule. It does not show the number of automobiles in use, but reports received at the secretary of state's office where licenses are issued are evidence that the use of machines is becoming more general. Stubbs' figures state that there are fewer horses in Indiana now than in any year in the last decade except 1900. The number this year is 596,156, barely 10,000 above the low water mark of 1900, and much lower than last year. On the other hand the report shows that the number of mules is rapidly increasing, having reached the total of 60,150.

A question has been raised in the Republican majority race here that is of considerable interest throughout the entire state. In substance it is whether or not a Democrat who voted for Roosevelt last November has a clear title to membership in the Republican party that will entitle him to vote at the primaries for nominating the city ticket. It will be interesting to Roosevelt Democrats to have the matter construed as to where they stand in the eyes of the Republican leaders. Are they still Democrats, or do they belong to the Republican procession? Chairman Metzger of the Republican city committee will submit the question to prominent attorneys for an opinion. The Joss primary election law says that anyone who affiliated with the party at the preceding election and who will make affidavit that he will vote for the ticket at the succeeding election, is entitled to a vote. The opponents of Bookwalter are insisting that he expects the supports of hundreds of these so-called Roosevelt Democrats and they don't propose to let them vote.

No decision has been reached yet as to a location for the southeastern Indiana hospital for the insane. Geo. A. H. Shideler of Marion, D. D. Jacobs of Lafayette, Eph Inman of Washington, and John McCord of New Richmond, members of the hospital commission, met with Governor Hanly yesterday afternoon, but did not take final action. The commission recently made a tour of several cities offering locations, and it is understood that the meeting was for the purpose of making up a list of the choice ones from which the selection will finally be made. W. E. Springer, representative from Bartholomew county, who was here today, seemed confident that the institution will be located near Columbus. Marcus Sulzer of Madison, who called on the governor, was confident Madison will draw the prize. The other places in the race are New Albany, Seymour, Bedford and North Vernon.

Stole Watch and Name.

Shelbyville, Ind., June 24.—As a result of the dragnet thrown out by the police here for the murderer of the Hill baby, a man giving his name as C. E. Poston was arrested on a charge of loitering. He carried a fine gold watch upon which was the inscription, "C. E. Poston, Crawfordsville, Oct. 15, 1877." Crawfordsville authorities were notified and it was learned that the home of C. E. Poston, a wealthy business man of that place, had been robbed last Sunday night. Chief of Police John Brothers of that city came here and took the man back there for trial. Poston was also robbed of a valuable diamond pin, but it was not found on the negro. He had assumed the name he found in the watch. He refused to give his real name.

Hyde Expresses Willingness.

New York, June 24.—Jas. H. Hyde, through his counsel, Samuel Untermyer, has indicated to Attorney General Mayer his willingness to facilitate the attorney general's proposed suit against "James S. Hyde and associates" for the return of the profits received by them in the syndicate's transactions in which the Equitable society was involved.

Judgment Affirmed.

New York, June 24.—The sentence of seven years and six months' imprisonment at hard labor which was imposed upon James R. Kellogg when he was found guilty of participating in the affairs of the E. S. Dean company, will stand. A decision affirming the judgment has been handed down by the appellate division of the supreme court.

Expectant Turners.

Indianapolis, June 24.—Nothing will be known of the success of the different athletes or clubs in the Turners' contests until the award of diplomas and laurel wreaths next Sunday afternoon. Until that time everything will be held secret by the judges and nothing announced.

A Mississippi Lynching.

Meridian, Miss., June 24.—Pierce Moberly, the negro who killed Ed C. Jones near this city last Saturday, has been captured near Roberts Mill, west of this place, and lynched. The body was found swinging to the hub of a tree, riddled with bullets.

Killed on Bridge.

Delphi, Ind., June 24.—Christian McNulty, sixty-five years old, a civil war veteran, was caught on the Deer creek bridge at Delphi by the Wabash fast mail and instantly killed.

IT'S ABOUT OVER

Chicago Strike Has at Last Literally Worn Itself Out.

MEN READY TO GIVE UP

Points of Difference Which Have Proven Obstacles to Peace No Longer Important.

At a Formal Meeting This Afternoon Terms of Settlement Will Be Agreed to.

Chicago, June 24.—All the obstacles which have prevented an ending of the teamsters' strike appear to have been eliminated and the indications today are that unless something unforeseen develops hostilities between the opposing interests will cease within a short time. At a meeting between the committee representing the strikers and J. V. Farwell for the employers' association, the question of a conspicuous display of the union button which has been opposed by the employers during the peace negotiations, was settled. This question is to be left to the employers individually, the association agreeing to withdraw the demand for the elimination of the union emblem.

During the meeting with Mr. Farwell the subcommittee of the teamsters' union assured the employers' representative that his terms of settlement would be satisfactory to the men, but that the result of the meeting would have to be reported to the general committee before any official action could be taken.

Arrangements were made with Mr. Farwell to meet representatives of the general committee this afternoon, when, according to the labor leaders, the settlement of the strike will be completed with the exception of taking a referendum vote by the strikers on the proposition. This referendum vote is merely a matter of form and will without doubt result in a unanimous vote to accept the employers' terms. Should today's conference result in a settlement being reached, it is expected the referendum vote will be completed by Monday night.

President Shea of the teamsters' union said he was satisfied with the basis of settlement and would not stand in the way of putting an end to the trouble.

ALLEGED LAND FRAUDS

New Mexico Stirred by Reason of Sensational Charges.

Roswell, N. M., June 24.—Benjamin H. Tallmadge was arrested here on the charge of subornation of perjury. He was taken before United States Land Commissioner Snyder and gave $5,000 bond. The warrant was issued by Commissioner Snyder upon complaint of Grosvenor Clarkson, special agent for the government, who has been working this district for several months.

It is reported that this is the first of many prosecutions that are to be brought for alleged fraud in this part of New Mexico. It is further stated that thousands of acres of land in the rich arid lands of New Mexico, the most valuable land in the territory, have been secured through fraudulent desert entries. All of these cases are under investigation.

Mr. Tallmadge declares that all of his deals have been according to law and that it will be so proved.

Deadly Duel in Mountains.

Sergeant, Ky., June 24.—A pistol duel in which two were killed occurred in the mountains near Dungan. Henry Hale and John Bumgardner, young farmers, met at Smith's saloon and after drinking heavily, opened fire on each other. Cyrus Hale and William Bumgardner, bystanders, joined in the battle, and after ten minutes of desperate fighting, when the smoke cleared away, Henry Hale and John Bumgardner were dead, while Cyrus Hale had received a dangerous wound. All were prominently connected in this section.

King Oscar's Policy.

Christiana, June 24.—The feeling aroused in Stockholm against King Oscar and the Swedish government has caused some uneasiness here. There is anxiety lest the Riksdag should yield to this feeling and revoke the conciliatory policy outlined by King Oscar; but among those best informed it is believed that the majority of the members of the riksdag will remain firm and follow up the policy of peace.

Bookmaker Arrested.

St. Louis, June 24.—Max Gumperts, a bookmaker, and two employees were arrested yesterday just before the start of the sixth race at the Delmar track. The arrests were made by deputy sheriffs of St. Louis county on warrants charging violations of the anti-betting law.

Vesuvius Causes Alarm.

Naples, June 24.—The prefect has ordered the population in the vicinity of Mount Vesuvius to prepare to leave their houses owing to an alarming increase in the discharges from the crater.

"NERVOUS AND IRRITABLE."
Pe-ru-na is invaluable to Ailing Women.

Miss Celia Harrington, 302 Second Avenue, Detroit, Mich., writes:

"Weakness has filled many months of my life with suffering. Through carelessness I caught a severe cold two years ago which settled in catarrh and seriously interfered with the regular functions of the body, and made me nervous and irritable. I began taking Peruna and found in it a faithful helper, as it enriched my blood and invigorated the whole system. I have no pains now and am always well."

Female weakness is generally dependent upon catarrh of the pelvic organs. Peruna cures catarrh wherever located.

After Train Wreckers.

Cleveland, O., June 24.—The Lake Shore Railway company has offered a reward of $2,000 for the arrest or for information leading to the arrest of the person or persons responsible for the wreck of the Twentieth Century Limited at Mentor, O., Wednesday night.

Fell on a Rake.

Coshocton, Ohio, June 24.—Rebecca Duffy, fourteen, was perhaps fatally injured in falling on a garden rake that was left lying up, on the lawn.

TERSE TELEGRAMS

Plans are already under way for the construction of two new lines for the Southern Railway.

W. S. Pratt of Hartford, Conn., was elected president of the National Music Teachers' association.

Business failures for the week number 157, against 175 last week and 215 in the like week in 1904.

Assistant Secretary of State Loomis sailed from New York today for Europe to be absent about a month.

Secretary Hay has left Washington for his summer home at Lake Sunapee, N. Y., where he will remain probably until autumn.

The present race meeting of the Latonia Jockey club will continue until July 22. The meeting was scheduled to close July 8.

At the Music Teachers' national association convention at New York, Oberlin, O., was chosen as the place of the next convention.

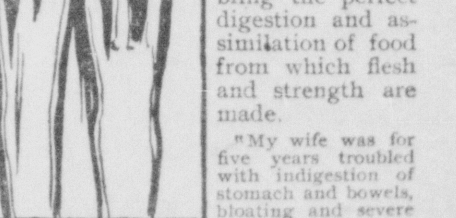

"I've Lost Ten Pounds"

A man says, "Look at this." And he over-laps his coat to show how loose it is. There are some people who can lose fat to advantage, but the loss of flesh is one of the accepted evidences of failing health. As flesh-making processes begin in the stomach, so naturally when there is less of flesh we look first to the stomach for the cause. And the cause is generally found to be disease of the stomach and digestive and nutritive tracts, resulting in loss of nutrition and consequent physical weakness.

Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery restores the lost flesh by curing diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition and enabling the perfect digestion and assimilation of food from which flesh and strength are made.

My wife was for five years troubled with indigestion of stomach and bowels, bloating and severe pain at times during the entire five years," writes Mr. J. Milton Unger, of McConelsburg, Pa. "After heart was affected, and she took a purgative every few days but only received temporary relief. She got very poor in flesh and I bought one bottle of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery from our druggist and after taking it she said she felt like a new woman. Has no more trouble with stomach and bowels, and has no pain now bloating. Has gained fifteen pounds in weight."

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure constipation and biliousness.

The wreck of the Lake Shore limited train has caused that road to go back to the old schedule. A speed of 70 to 80 miles an hour is to fast for safety.

For years the old Putnam county court house was endured. The people of Greencastle were ashamed of it but they could not help themselves. But now that Putnam county is about to dedicate a fine new temple of justice the people of Greencastle are putting on airs and brushing up for dedication day. But any one who ever saw the old court house will excuse them.

GOVERNOR HANLY, of Indiana, and Governor Folk of Missouri, once a Republican and the other a Democrat, are receiving more words of commendation now than usually fall to the lot of public officials. Both believe in the majesty of the law and have the courage to insist on its enforcement. It is for these reasons especially that they are commended. These men believe that they should keep their oath of office. The people believe they should keep it. No officer need apologize for living up to the letter of the law.

WILDER BRIGADE

Will Visit Scenes of Toil and Triumph.

The famous Wilder Brigade organization is planning a trip to the battle fields where they were prominently engaged during the Civil War. On several occasions the members of "Wilder's Brigade" have met for reunion on Chickamauga battlefield. The people of Chattanooga have given them a warm welcome and made their stay pleasant.

Having decided to hold one more reunion on that historic ground they have decided to invite all soldiers who participated in the campaigns from Louisville to Atlanta to share in the pleasures of the occasion. A very low excursion rate has been granted by the railroads.

Tents will be supplied ready to be put up on the battlefield to those who wish to enjoy a season of camp life. Arrangements will be made for taking blankets and provisions sufficient for several days.

The time fixed is the anniversary of the battle, Sept. 19 and 20. The time limit will not be less than thirty days. Side trips to other historic places will be arranged for. Stop-over privileges will be granted by the railroads. It is the aim to make the cost so reasonable that the veteran with moderate means can save enough of his pension between now and September that he can take his wife along and it is hoped he may be accompanied by his children, grandchildren and friends. The trip will be one of great pleasure and interest. L. S. Kilborn, president of the Wilder Brigade organization writes:

"Let every comrade understand that he is cordially invited to share in the pleasures of this occasion and ask his friends to go with him."

DIED.

BAUGHMAN—Enoch Baughmandied at 10:10 this morning at his home on north Poplar street of lung trouble of about six months duration, at the age of fifty five years four months and eighteen days. While his death has been expected for some time past, still it came today as a sad shock to his many friends in the city. Since last January he has been troubled with cold and catarrhal trouble, which developed into inflammation of the lungs.

Mr. Baughman was born at Brownstown, Indiana, on the 6th of February 1850. He lived on the farm with his father, Enoch Baughman, who was an extensive fruit grower, and received his education in the schools at Brownstown. In 1881 on June 15, he was married at Brownstown to Miss Jennie Lawson, who still survives him. His two daughters, Nellie, aged eighteen, and Carrie, aged fifteen, are also living, with one brother, Sam Baughman, who resides at Denver, Colorado, and two sisters, Mrs. J. W. Pomeroy and Mrs. M. E. Ritchey, both residents of Seymour, while three brothers died before him.

When a young man he went to Texas and was engaged for a term or two in teaching school at Whorton, Whorton County. At this place he also clerked in a store and served one term as deputy sheriff. He also went to Duluth, Minnesota and was engaged for a short time in the pursuit of the lumber business. In 1883 he came to Seymour and the succeeding twenty years were taken up with railroading. He worked his way on the Baltimore & Ohio road up to engineer which place he kept for a long time. After he discontinued railroading here he served awhile on the police force, and after which time he went to Illinois and again took up railroading. Coming back to Seymour he was again in the employ of the B. & O. in whose service he continued until the first of the year.

Mr. Baughman was a member of the Presbyterian church, which he joined together with the other members of his family about a year ago. At all times he was strictly temperate and upright. He was a man devoted to his family and their interests, proving himself the best of husbands and fathers. He was hardworking and industrious always, and up to the time of his last sickness was an unusually hearty and robust man. He was the center of a large circle of acquaintances who extend sympathy and share in the sorrow of the members of the bereaved family. Mr. Baughman was also a member of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers and a valued factor.

The funeral services are to be conducted at the residence at 4:30 this afternoon. Rev. Dr. G. W. Shields will be in charge of the ceremonies. Owing to the condition of the body immediate burial services were necessary.

CLARK.—Joshua Clark, aged 85 years, 4 months, 20 days, died at 2:15 p. m. Saturday, June 24, at the home of his niece Mrs. M. C. Carpenter, with whom he has made his home for nearly three years. Mr. Clark was born at Wendell, Mass., Feb. 4, 1820, and for many years was engaged in the carpenter business at Brattleboro, Vt. with his brother, Colin Clark, father of Mrs. Carpenter. For over 40 years his home was at Fairbault, Minn. His wife and only child died several years ago. He was a member of the Congregational church at Fairbault, Minn. For several months he has

HANLY DELIBERATING

The Governor Confronted by Two Appeals for Clemency.

Indianapolis, June 23.—Governor Hanly's attitude relative to the death penalty will probably be definitely known within a few days, as the supreme court has dismissed the appeal of the attorneys of Berkley Smith, colored wife murderer, who is under sentence to hang at the state prison, Michigan City, June 30. Strong pressure is being brought to bear on Governor Hanly to commute to life imprisonment the death sentence of both Smith and Edward Donahue, the latter of whom was convicted on the charge of murdering Arminster Northrup of Hobart, for the purpose of robbery, and it is believed by state officials that they will not be hung. The governor is reticent as to what course he intends to pursue, but it is known that he is investigating very carefully to learn from the best authorities whether or not capital punishment is a better preventive for major crimes than life imprisonment. He is naturally opposed to the death penalty, and it is believed that he will not only commute the sentences of Smith and Donahue, but that he will establish a rule in that respect that will prevail throughout his entire administration.

The new local Democratic organization will be made up largely of the men who did the successful fighting for Mayor Holtzman two years ago. The mayor has no opposition for re-nomination, but he was anxious to have a committee that is unanimously for him and that will fight for him from start to finish. The organization so far, it is understood, is entirely satisfactory to him and his lieutenants. Chairman Keach will retire Saturday afternoon when the new committee will meet to decide when the nominating convention shall be held, and to elect officers. There is no opposition to Edward Raub for chairman and it is probable that the date for the convention will be set for about the middle of July.

The funeral of Simon P. Sheerin, head of the New Long Distance Telephone company of Indiana, and former secretary of the Democratic national committee, was held this morning. Many messages of condolence were received from throughout the country today. Former President Cleveland wired Mrs. Sheerin as follows: "One who counted your deceased husband among his beloved friends expresses his sincere sympathy with you as the saddest victim of death's visitation." Among others who sent messages were W. F. Harrity, who was chairman of the national committee while Mr. Sheerin was secretary; T. F. Ryan of the Equitable of New York, and ex-President Loeoe of the Rock Island system.

Captain Harry S. New, acting chairman of the Republican national committee, has returned from his summer cottage at Turtle Lake, Mich. He is looking fine and will remain here until after the primaries a week from today. Captain New is taking an active part on behalf of Frank D. Stalnaker, candidate for nomination for mayor, and was to have presided over one of his meetings last night, but was unable to be present. The latter's managers are growing bolder in their claims. One of them at his headquarters asserted today that he will have a majority of 3,000 over Bookwalter. The betting is growing more favorable to Stalnaker, the odds changing today from 10 to 9 to 10 to 7.

Ex-City Clerk on Trial.

Noblesville, Ind., June 23.—The case against Horace W. Carey, ex-clerk of Hamilton county, indicted for embezzlement, has been called for trial, after having been postponed three times. It is alleged that the defendant did not pay to the Monon Railway company $4,025 which the Indianapolis Northern Traction company paid to him in his official capacity as compensation to the Monon for privilege of crossing the steam road south of Carmel. Carey's bondsmen settled the shortage after judgment had been rendered in favor of the Monon company. This was followed by Carey's indictment on the charge as named.

An Awful Revenge.

Pittsburg, Kan., June 23.—An unknown man called W. R. Scott, a lumber merchant, to the latter's door here and threw a pint of carbolic acid into his face. Scott was burned terribly about the face, neck and shoulders. He may live but probably will be blind. The assailant escaped. No motive for the attack is known.

Crime in "The Dead Stretch."

Florence, S. C., June 24.—H. D. Granger, a local Baptist preacher, was shot from ambush and killed while working on his farm near here. He lived in the district known as "the dead stretch," where it is said that negroes are not welcome and the only explanation of his death is in the fact that he hired two negroes to work on the farm and protected them—even allowing them to sleep on his premises. Granger was respected and had many friends, but it appears to have angered a certain element that had made it a risky thing for a negro to enter the "dead stretch," which is said to lie between Bayboro and Loris.

Wife's Pleading Saved Him.

Muncie, Ind., June 23.—Notwithstanding Orville Gray shot nine times at his wife in an endeavor to kill her, and would have succeeded but for a neighbor woman, who threw herself on him and wrested the revolver from his hand while he had it pressed against his wife's breast, Gray was let off by the authorities after being fined on a number of minor charges. This was due to the pleadings of Mrs. Gray, who asked that her husband be restored to her. Gray was drunk and jealous when he did the shooting, and is now repentant.

IMPORTANT EVIDENCE

ments made by himself with Kribs and John A. Benson to expedite timber claims through the general land office and the application of the fees received therefor, to the earnings of the firm and the division of the fees at the end of each month, Mitchell receiving half. The nature of the evidence was the same as previously submitted by the prosecution and showed similar transactions to those already testified to by Judge Tanner.

New York June 24.—Mrs. Winthrop Rutherford, fourth daughter of Levi P. Morton, former vice president of the United States, has been received into the Roman Catholic church. Mrs. Rutherford was and her parents are, members of the Protestant Episcopal church, as is also her husband. As far as can be learned no opposition to Mrs. Rutherford's change of faith was made by any of her family.

Will Hold Him Awhile.

Waco, Tex., June 24.—In the case of Lee Robertson, a negro charged with attempted criminal assault upon a white woman, the jury brought in the following verdict: "We, the jury, find the defendant guilty as charged and fix his punishment at confinement in the state penitentiary at one thousand and one years."

Big Fish Drowns a Boy.

Montgomery, W. Va., June 24.—While fishing from the outside lock wall at Paint creek, W. Va., Sammy Alter, age twelve, was pulled from the wall by the bite of a large fish on his line and fell into the water, twenty-three feet below, stunning him and causing him to drown before assistance reached him.

Refuse to Play with Negro.

Delaware, O., June 24.—The baseball team of the University of Kentucky was engaged to play a game with the Ohio Wesleyan university club, but when play was called the visitors found that the catcher of the local team was a negro, whereupon they refused to play and left the ground.

USE MANUFACTURED ICE

In your homes and places of business. Why? Because it is the only kind of ice that is absolutely clean. If it was not, physicians would not recommend it for use in the sick room in preference to natural ice.

Ebner's manufactured ice is all ice. It is not one-half slush and the other half frozen dirty water. It is solid, pure, sparkling, ice, with no foreign substances in it. As it does not cost any more than filthy natural ice does, is there any reason why you should not use it?

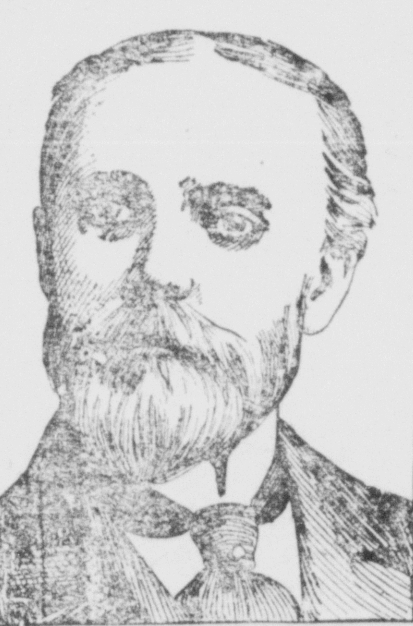

Give us your orders for the season now. We will guarantee that both our ice and delivery service will be perfectly satisfactory.

ciety, made his first public appearance as ambassador last night at a dinner given in his honor by the Pilgrims' Society of London.

The gathering included many of England's most famous men with a sprinkling of American residents of London, all of whom gave the heartiest welcome to the American representative. The large banquet hall at Claridge's was crowded and presented a brilliant scene. The hall was plainly but daintily decorated with the entwined American and British flags, huge bells of American Beauty roses, and clusters of other flowers, while the numerous round tables at which the company dined were decorated with red and pink roses and green climbers. Field Marshal Lord Roberts presided.

"You may allow Russian admiral to embark his sick and wounded officers and men on Russian hospital ship, daily expected, upon their giving parole not to engage in hostilities during the war."

"You may also allow them to bring from Shanghai material for repairing vessels, other than munitions of war, such as cordage, sailcloth, waste and oil for machinery, etc., but the vessels are still to remain in internment."

NO FEE TO FISH

In Michigan, the Mecca This Year of Indiana Tourists as in Years Past.

Positive information received from Michigan authorities states there is no truth whatever in a report that an annual fee of $25 or any other fee is to be imposed on non-resident fishermen in Michigan. A rumor of such a law having been passed in Michigan is stamped as absolutely without foundation. The origin of this false report is traced to talk current last winter when a question was raised in legislative proceedings concerning the subject, but no action taken, legislators not deeming such a measure advisable. Nothing further has been done, and tourists from Indiana are assured that they need not forego their customary outing to Michigan resorts this summer on the score of being confronted by a tax collector, for there are none such to bar the way.

Judging from the many inquiries already received by W. W. Richardson, Assistant General Passenger Agent of the Pennsylvania Lines, Indianapolis, regarding Michigan resorts and the famous fishing, there will be more than the usual number of Indiana tourists enjoy their summer outing in Although Indiana is not known as a tobacco raising state, comparative figures for 1903 and 1904 compiled from assessors' reports by Joseph H. The figures indicate that about 13,500 acres of Indiana land was devoted to the raising of tobacco in Indiana last year.

MORE INFORMATION.

Hospital Commission Want Surveys and Topographical Maps.

Governor Hanly and members of the commission appointed by him to locate and build the new Southeastern Hospital for the Insane must have more detailed information concerning the six sites that are offered in as many different cities before they decide as to the location of the new institution. This was the tenor of the conference at the Governor's office Friday afternoon.

Expecting the commission to announce the selection of a city Friday there were a number of persons in Indianapolis from cities that are asking for the hospital. Among them were William E. Springer, Representative from Bartholomew County, and Representative Joseph Cravens and Marcus Sulzer, of Madison. The commission declined to hear any further argument in favor of any of the sites, but stated that their recent visit to the six cities seeking the hospital had given them a well defined idea of the advantages and disadvantages of the different sites.

The commission decided to ask for topographical maps of the various sites. Close study will be given these before a site is selected.

The cities that are asking for the hospital are Columbus, (Seymour), Madison, Bedford, North Vernon and New Albany.—Indianapolis Star.

The above accords with a statement made by the REPUBLICAN several days ago, that at least one survey would be made by each of the cities seeking the location of the hospital.

"That we assure him our heartiest support in his every endeavor to enforce the law, and rejoice in the success that has attended his efforts.

"Be it further resolved that we call upon the local officers of the law throughout the district to follow the example of the chief executive and that we pledge ourselves to encourage and support every officer in the performance of his duty."

Detective Stories Barred.

News agencies have received word from the management of the Union News Company that in the future detective stories and bloodthirsty dime novels of every nature will be barred from the trains and stations of the Pennsylvania System. Train "news butchers" and news agents at stations all along the line today received the same orders from the company, which owns the privileges on the Pennsylvania System, to send in all literature of this nature at once. It is explained by railroad men that the order is in accordance with a decision of the Pennsylvania higher officials to eliminate what they consider one of the breeders of crime in the country.

The REPUBLICAN is informed that Constable Liebrand paid out of his own pocket the expense of the Redding township prisoner while here and also for his transportation to Brownstown. It does not seem right for the officer to bear this expense himself.

The Effective Remedy
WASHINGTON, IOWA, April 4, 1905.
I was troubled for over a year with so scanty a flow that it was virtually suppression. A heavy cold superinduced this condition and nothing I could do seemed to help me. The only effective remedy I ever found was Wine of Cardui. Within two weeks I felt the good effects of the medicine and after I had used 18 bottles in all I was as healthy and regular as any woman could wish to be.
My sister used it while expecting to become a mother and found that it made childbirth comparatively easy and after the child was born she found that it helped her to regain her strength.

GRAND WORTHY ASSOCIATE, SONS OF TEMPERANCE.

WINE OF CARDUI

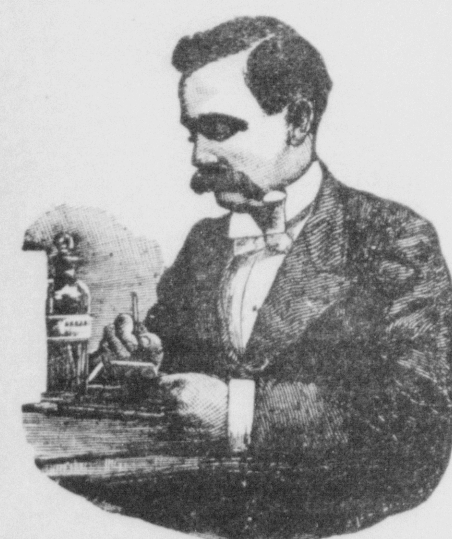

Wine of Cardui cures nine out of every ten cases of the disorders of menstruation. These cures are permanent, whether the trouble is complicated or not.

Wine of Cardui cures the sickness of young girls, relieves the weakness of adults, banishes leucorrhoea, headaches, backaches and nervousness and eases the crisis attendant on the change of life.

Thousands of mothers besides Miss Root's sister have found grateful relief from the pains of childbirth and have had a quick and happy recovery from its use. You cannot afford to suffer when $1.00 bottles are sold by all druggists.

TANNER TO TEST IT

Famous Forty-Day Fasting
Now Has a New Life Theory.

WILL BE BURIED ALIVE

The Old Doctor Will Be Put Away Under Eight Feet of Attica Magnetic Mud.

He Confidently Expects to Be Resurrected in Good Shape After Thirty Days.

Attica, Ind., June 24.—Dr. Tanner, who over twenty years ago, fasted forty days to prove that the biblical account of the fast of Jesus was not physically impossible, will be buried alive for thirty days at Mudlavia, near this city, this summer. Dr. Tanner's idea is that chemical action in the earth generates a form of energy which he designates as radio-activity, and which is carried to the surface by the freely-flowing springs. At the earth's surface, so runs the theory, the water is evaporated and the energy remains behind in the mud. Dr. Tanner, after studying the theory, became convinced that it was not an impossibility, and, emboldened by his former success, he decided to test the proposition. A grave eight feet deep will be dug in the magnetic mud, and Dr. Tanner will be buried alive, to remain for thirty days. He expects to be resurrected alive.

DEMOCRATIC EDITORS

Are Preparing to Get Together at French Lick.

Indianapolis, June 24.—At a meeting of the executive committee of the Indiana State Democratic Editorial Association at the Grand hotel yesterday afternoon, it was decided that the association's annual midsummer meeting should be held at French Lick July 13, 14 and 15 next. All Democratic editors of the state, whether members of the association or not, are invited to attend this meeting. The French Lick Springs Hotel company has made a rate of $2 a day for the convention. Henry Watterson of the Louisville Courier Journal will be invited to address the assembled editors.

It is announced that the editorial party will arrive at French Lick on the evening of Thursday, July 13, and dinner will be followed by a musicale.

At the business meeting on Friday morning Thomas Taggart will make an address of welcome to the visiting editors, which will be responded to by L. G. Ellingham of Decatur, president of the state association. Papers will be read by J. O. Behmer on "Composition and Its Actual Cost," and by Oscar Cravens on "The Passing of the Weekly."

In the afternoon the party will take a trip to the historic caves of Orange county and enjoy a Dutch lunch. The annual banquet will be held Friday evening. Frank B. Haimbaugh of the Muncie Press, toastmaster. Clay W. Metzger of the Plymouth Democrat will respond to the toast, "Chicken With Its Head Off," and Dale J. Crittenger of the Anderson Democrat will respond to "The Democratic Editors." The banquet will be followed by a grand ball.

Saturday morning Royal E. Purcell of the Vincennes Sun will read a paper on "A Newspaper—Its Cost." In the afternoon the party will enjoy a horseback ride to nearby points of interest, and in the evening there will be a musicale at the hotel.

It was resolved, with thanks to the steamboat company, to abandon the project of making a trip up the Kentucky river, as had first been contemplated.

Indianapolis, June 24.—A rapid marital pace was set by Leonard W.
